

---

DON DAWSON, Carleton University

Long Time Behaviour of a Class of Multidimensional Diffusions

We consider some classes of Markov diffusion processes with values in the positive quadrant and related systems of interacting diffusions on the hierarchical group and their hierarchical mean field and continuum limits. In particular we consider the behaviour of catalytic branching and mutually catalytic branching systems. A review of recent results and open problems will be given.